United States Attorney Deborah Gilg and the Omaha Police Department announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

Jimmy King was sentenced August 30, 2010, by the Honorable Laurie Smith Camp, United States District Judge in Omaha, Nebraska. Jimmy King was sentenced to 24 months imprisonment, four years supervised release, and $100 special assessment for the crime of distributing less than 50 kilograms of marijuana within 100 feet of a youth center.

During January, 2010, the Omaha Police Department received information that Mr. King was selling marijuana from his place of employment, the Columbus Park Recreation Center. A confidential informant and undercover officer were able to purchase marijuana from Mr. King on the Columbus Park Recreation premises on two different occasions, and at the Gold's Gym parking lot on a third occasion.
